{Verse 1:ericdoa}

I met a boy by the lake (I met a boy)

His skin was pale and he had nothing to say (nothing to say)

He knows our secrets and he knows our mistakes (knows our mistakes)

I walk on {?} try to balance my weight (balance my weight)

She met a boy by the lake (she met a boy)

Gave her a time and told her she can't be late (she can't be late)

He's heard the rumors they won't say to his face (say to his face)

{?} leave this party, we'll be taking his placÐµ

{Chorus:ericdoa}

Come take a look in the mirror, tÐµll me if you live the truth

You hate the loss that we built, baby I built it with you

Feel like i'm losing this race, this isn't food I can chew

Your getting lost in my maze, but your too stubborn to lose

{Verse 2:doegaege}

I told the boy by the lake sorry for letting you down about the promise I m ade, I keep on running in circles

A mistake,(I) I don't know what to do

My tongues tide and i'm fading away

{?} chemicals, I have your own {?}

The mirror says i'm miserable

My angel wings haven't {?} yet

{Chorus:ericdoa}

Come take a look in the mirror, tell me if you live the truth

You hate the loss that we built, baby I built it with you

Feel like i'm losing this race, this isn't food I can chew

Your getting lost in my maze, but your too stubborn to lose

Come take a look in the mirror, tell me if you live the truth

You hate the loss that we built, baby I built it with you
Feel like i'm losing this race, this isn't food I can chew
Your getting lost in my maze, but your too stubborn to lose
