For me, and you
You

{Verse 1} Amongst the flames, they are coming It's not a game for fear of falling The smell of fear, sweat and tears Run away Flashing lights, the chase is coming Crash and burn, the pace is forming The smell of fear, sweat and tears Run away

{Chorus}
Speeding away with all the glory
What could they say?
What could they change?
Speeding away with all the glory
What could they say?
What could they change?

{Verse 2}
Lying low, under cover
Camouflage, no surrender
The smell of fDµar, sweat and tears
Run away
Facing fate, wDµ will make it
Letting go of all this hatred

The smell of fear, sweat and tears Run away {Chorus} Speeding away With all the glory What could they say? What could they change? Speeding away With all the glory What could they say? What could they say?

{Outro} Run away Run away
