

Scavenger - Isolation Pt II

My story will end when I get to meet fate
I live in a fucking void with no escape

I'm running I'm circles, fake relations
Alone in the world - I'm isolated
Burning alive from my own creation
Can't put down the bottle till death is stated

Expired

I don't feel good, my stomach turning
Hell on earth, I'm already burning

Hate the population, sitting in my basement, staring at a gun like it's temptation

Heart has been vacated, I've been perpetrated for the last time, and I'm sick of waiting

Overcome by hatred, meanwhile life's degrading, give em the end that they all awaited

Fuck

This

I just wanna go home

God I feel so isolated, why'd you have to make me live my life alone

Last

Straw

No one hitting up my phone

No one gonna miss me when I fade away, back into the unknown

Red

Sky

Hell inside my mind, demons in disguise, now I do their bidding, no life in my eyes, I already died, very long ago but

I

Swear

In the void is where I thrive

Don't remember how to show emotion, when alone - I forget to cry

Fuck

This

I just wanna go home

God I feel so isolated, why'd you have to make me live my life alone

Fuck

This

I just wanna go home

God I feel so isolated, why'd you have to make me live my life alone
