

Whasianweeb - Dollhouse by Melanie Martinez

{Intro, spoken: Ragatha, Pomni}

R-Ragatha?! What's going on?

Pomni, before I go, I wish you the best of luck here-

*No, Ragatha, don't say that! Please, just stay calm and don't move! I'll go to get Caine, and-

{Verse 1}

Hey, girl, open the walls, play with your dolls

We'll be a perfect family

When you walk away is when I really play

You don't hear me when I say

"Caine, please, no more

I can't do this anymore, and my mind is drifting slowly"

{Pre-Chorus}

No one ever listens, this wallpaper glistens

â€œDon't let them see that you're letting your mind slipâ€•

{Chorus}

Places, places, get in your places

Throw on your dress and put on your doll faces

Everyone thinks that I'm perfect

Please don't let them look through the curtains

â€œRagatha, won't you do me a solid?

Go check on Pomni, won't you be a good dolly?â€•

Everyone thinks that I'm perfect

Please don't let them look through the curtains

{Post-Chorus}

I see things that nobody else sees

(D-O-L-L-H-O-U-S-E

I see things that nobody else sees)

{Verse 2}

Hey, girl, look at my face, I got it all in place
Ha, you're blinded by my button eye
When you turn your back, I almost go black
And forget sense of reality
Uh-oh, Caine has got a new adventure, fearless
Go back to being fearless

{Pre-Chorus}

No one ever listens, this wallpaper glistens
One day they'll see that I'm letting my mind slip

{Chorus}

Throw on your dress and put on your doll faces

Please don't let them look through the curtains
