

Eat Defeat - Running In Place

Looks like i'm moving on again
Another year marks another another end
I thought my plans were solid but even steel can bend

I don't know know where I can go

Things always work out in the end
But i'm burning bridges that I could mend
And building new ones in their wake
They're already starting to shake

I don't know where I can go

I guess i'll pack my things up and go
Another house I couldn't call home
Just like a VHS i'll tape over, but the memories still show

I don't want to leave
I want to plant my roots
But there's so much to see
Conflict is all that drives me

Guess I'll pack my things up and go

I guess i'll pack my things up and go
Another house I couldn't call home
Just like a VHS i'll tape over, but the memories still show
How can I get better when I want to settle but i've seen what the world has to offer?
