

Blackened Blue - Another Magical Song

{intro}

That magic was not yours to give!

{verse one}

Much temptation, condemnation

Your actions guarantee annihilation

Premature activation

A curse to shroud this untouchable nation

You're unworthy

Not a leader

And it's consideration you lack

The end is coming back

{chorus}

The future you've created

Is left to be invaded

Harmony, you've delayed it

You'll be left broken and hated

I'm not the leader you know

You've nowhere else to go

You've waived your right to live

That magic was not yours to give!

{instrumental bridge}

{verse two}

Immolation, mutilation

Eternal end to the futurĐµ's creation

The root cause

Your own misgivings
Prepare for eternal pain
You clearly haven't

{chorus}

The future you've created
Is left to be invaded
Harmony, you've delayed it
You'll be left broken and hated

I'm not the leader you know
You've nowhere else to go
You've waived your right to live
That magic was not yours to give!

{bridge part one}

I see there's
Endless pressure overflow
It's taking over
All because you couldn't keep it
{guitar solo}

{bridge part two}

Not everyone deserves a chance
You're not the magic arbiter
And as the magic formulation arrives
I'll watch you die

{chorus}

The future you've created
Is left to be invaded
Harmony, you've delayed it
You'll be left broken and hated

{outro}

Take a look at your decisions

Is this what you've envisioned?

This one will be your last!
