

The Burns Sisters - Listen to the Beat of a Heart

You could never look deep enough
To see the way I feel
Never, never quite close enough
To see if love was real

My runaway lover
Always running for cover
Afraid to take a heart
That you can't steal

My faraway love
Oh, can't you hear it in the night
The beat of a heart that burns for you
Listen to the beat of a heart that burns for you

Listen to the sound of love
That sets the night on fire
It's calling out to you
And touching your desire

But you're afraid to be tender
Afraid to remember
The magic that we made
When love was true

My faraway love
Oh, can't you hear it in the night
The beat of a heart that burns for you
Listen to the beat of a heart that burns for you
Listen to the beat of a heart that burns for you
Oh oh oh oh

That burns for you

Oh oh oh oh

That burns for you

Oh oh oh oh

That burns for you

Oh oh oh oh

That burns for you

Remember when dreams came true

Listen to the beat of a heart that burns for you

My faraway love

Oh, can't you hear it in the night

The beat of a heart that burns for you

Remember when dreams came true

Listen to the beat of a heart that burns for you

Baby, can't you hear it

Listen to the beat of a heart that burns for you

Oh oh oh oh

That burns for you

Oh oh oh oh

That burns for you

Oh oh oh oh

That burns for you

Remember when dreams came true

That burns for you

Oh oh oh oh
