

Gotham City Syndicatez - Narcissistic Lies

{Verse}

Narcissistic cryptic messages, arms of the wise
Egotistic mystic premises sought for our eyes
I wanna see you go to the dome of their cries
And face the place that fostered all of your damned lies

{Pre-Chorus}

A competition between giants
For the price of our lives
A glance exchange of the clients
Acknowledgment of their lies

{Chorus}

Self-absorbed genetic mutation
Passed down from procreation
Mommy and Daddy must have hated you
You seething dopey rat-like shrew
How many children you snuffed away?
How much crack have you puffed today?
The truth remains, clear to all eyes
We've had enough of your narcissistic lies
Fucking lies

{Verse}

I hear, our world will collapse any day
In the streets, we are all told to pray
So tell me, who next will you betray?
The planet is tired of what you've to say

{Pre-Chorus}

A competition between giants
For the price of our lives

A glance exchange of the clients

Acknowledgment of their lies

{Chorus}

Self-absorbed genetic mutation

Passed down from procreation

Mommy and Daddy must have hated you

You seething dopey rat-like shrew

How many children you snuffed away?

How much crack have you puffed today?

The truth remains, clear to all eyes

We've had enough of your narcissistic lies

Fucking lies

{Bridge}

You get in front of that camera

And tell us to not believe our lying eyes

Those images of children abused

A cryptic dance, you can hear their cries

Reconstructive memory surgery

Post-hypnotic mass scale mind forgery

Reconstructive memory surgery

Post-hypnotic mass scale mind forgery

{Pre-Chorus}

A competition between giants

For the price of our lives

A glance exchange of the clients

Acknowledgment of their lies

{Chorus}

Self-absorbed genetic mutation

Passed down from procreation
Mommy and Daddy must have hated you
You seething dopey rat-like shrew
How many children you snuffed away?
How much crack have you puffed today?
The truth remains, clear to all eyes
We've had enough of your narcissistic lies
