

Gotham City Syndicatez - Harbinger of Blight

{Verse}

In shadows of decaying spires
A vigilante's hubris transpires
Caped crusader, once venerated
Now catalyst of ruin, unabated

{Chorus}

Oh Dark Knight, harbinger of blight
Your righteous quest, our world's twilight
Gotham burns, as you atone
Civilization crumbles, overthrown

{Verse}

Metropolis of fractured dreams
Where justice morphs to extremes
Bat-signal flares, a portent dire
Society's pyre grows ever higher

{Chorus}

Oh Dark Knight, harbinger of blight
Your righteous quest, our world's twilight
Gotham burns, as you atone
Civilization crumbles, overthrown

{Bridge}

Cowled paragon of virtue's fall
Your crimson judgment dooms us all
In battling the abyss so long
You've become the dirge, the swan song

{Chorus}

Oh Dark Knight, harbinger of blight

Your righteous quest, our world's twilight
Gotham burns, as you atone
Civilization crumbles, overthrown

Oh Dark Knight, harbinger of blight
Your righteous quest, our world's twilight
Gotham burns, as you atone
Civilization crumbles, overthrown

{Outro}

As embers of our world subside
We rue the hero who couldn't hide
Batman, in your wake we languish
Architects of our own anguish
