

Alec Normal - Can You Could I

Can you let me be your eyes?
Would you let me by your side?
Could i be the one you know?
Could i be your status quo?

Could i be your sun and sky?
Could i make you feel alive?
But when push would come to shove
Could i be the one you love?

Can you let me realize?
Can i not be so despised
When i try so hard to be
Everything you want in me?

When you throw me to the curb
I feel it doesn't even hurt
It's like i've always been this way
For our loves gonĐµ and fades away

If i had one question answĐµred it would be â€œwhy me?â€• (why me)
The same kind of filthy masquerade on tv
If only you were, and if only i was
Then maybe this pain would be love inside us

But it's not, soâ€¡ (love) yeah
(love)
(love)
(love)
So, i'll ask you one last time
Can you let me be your eyes?

Would you let me by your side?

Could i be the one you know?

Could i be your status quo?

Could i be your sun and sky?

Could i make you feel alive?

But when push would come to shove

Could i be the one you love?
