Alec Normal - Hello?

I saw you looking at me

My eyes so bright

If I had a nickel for every time

You never got me into a fight

My brain so grey, what would be pink?

If I ever met you

Give me a shot

Die slow

For only God can see what really sees you

My hatred turned into love

And you won't let up

Now if I had umbrellas on standby

Then living with you wouldn't be so tough (What'cha do that for?)

My brain so grey, what would be pink?

If I ever met you

Give me a shot

Die slow (One day)

For only God can see what really sees you

Cut away but never got cut off

Ask as if you always came across

Fever dreams always left me dazed

But I woke and knew it was just a phase

I'm unsure what happened to her

But I'm off to find her

Looking hurts and fear arises

Lets hope I make the right turn

I'm unsure what happened to her

But I'm off to find her

Looking hurts and fear arises

Lets hope I make the right turn

Hope I make the right turn

Hope I make the right turn
