

Alec Normal - Dear Sticker,

Do you still hear me?

Oh the things I do for you

Even though my heart says not to

I bend over backwards, I twist around

Can you change the words that somebody's lips sound

Just stay quiet

Just stay put

Would a painting fix itself if it could?

Try again tomorrow, and fail again tonight

Let's hope that our dear Sticker, will see the morning light

The time goes

But you stay here

You let yourself disappear, my dear Sticker

What's gotten into her?

You say, you're alright

But be honest, would you mind

If you're near me?

Do you still hear me?

The time goes

But you stay here

You let yourself disappear, my dear Sticker

What's gotten into her?

You say, you're alright

But be honest, would you mind

If you're near me?

Do you still hear me?

The time goes

But you stay here

You let yourself disappear, my dear Sticker

What's gotten into her?
