

Alec Normal - Finders, Keepers

I'm searching
And I see you
I found you
But I can't keep you

I'm breathing
Alone again
And if I'm seething
You hold my hand

Miracle, let me know, if you're right for me
It's nothing but wishing to be
Miracle, let me know, if it's conspiracy
It's on and off, as clear as you can see

I'm hurting
But I believe you
I lost you
But I can't grieve you

I'm breathing
Alone again
If I'm not dreaming
Then my love withstands

But tell me
Miracle, let me know, if you're right for me
It's nothing but wishing to be
Miracle, let me know, if it's conspiracy
It's on and off, as clear as you can see

Miracle, let me know, if you're right for me
It's nothing but wishing to be
Miracle, let me know, if it's conspiracy
It's on and off, as clear as you can see

Oh I know the ones you love
Have to be set free
Or that wouldn't be love at all, now, would it me?

But do I love you enough to let you go from me?
Oh, from me?

Miracle, let me know, if you're right for me
It's nothing but wishing to be
Miracle, let me know, if it's conspiracy
It's on and off, as clear as you can see
