

Hybridbwoy - Weekend

Life is a race but it is not for the weak
Tryna stay ahead it's seven days in a week
Have to take a break, go away for a week
Get my thoughts together, throw away it to the sea

It's a weekend

Life feels good on a weekend
Have to get my mind off the deep end
Have to go away, go on a trip then
(On a trip then)

Life on a weekend
Surfing with the wave to the deep end
Dance it all away no pretense
Feeling so free cause it's weekend
(It's a weekend, yeah!)

It's a weekend

Life feels good on a weekend
HavĐµ to get my mind off the deep end
HavĐµ to go away, go on a trip then
(On a trip then)

Life on a weekend
Surfing with the wave to the deep end
Dance it all away no pretense
Feeling so free cause it's weekend
(It's a weekend, yeah!)

Baby looking extra fine

Glass wine

One of a kind

The way she brukk it with her body combine
She know sey me and her combine

The way she moving man it burst my mind
She love the hustle and she no decline
She wanna tell me things that only ease my mind
And everyday she checking up on man
It's the weekend
She know me and feel the vibe on the e10
Other man that she mention only pretend
If that ain't so then why she love me on the weekend
She know
I don't mean to get you confused
Need to know if I can get you right next to me
You know I got the Henny and juice
All I need is you for this melody
She ask me if I pull up
And I tell her it's the weekend I'm feeling extra nasty
Together we can a make the riddim much more fancy
Turn up around me too many shots of this brandy

It's a weekend
Life feels good on a weekend
Have to get my mind off the deep end
Have to go away, go on a trip then
(On a trip then)
Life on a weekend
Surfing with the wave to the deep end
Dance it all away no pretense
Feeling so free cause it's weekend
(It's a weekend, yeah!)
