

YNKEUMALICE - Can't be mines again

Can't be mines again know
I failed at loving you
Feel like you was destined for a reason
You don't even know love from the start
Went right but took left
Can't be mines again know
I failed loving you
I'm only young feeling great
Age like fine wine

We all miss someone in the end
Someone just doesn't stay
Or they pass away
I can't feel but a whole in my chest
Feel like my heart ain't their
Feeling like I tried my best
To keep you
Can't be mines again
Knowing time goes on
I still think about you
I still regret my old ways
How I tried you
I shouldn't never fuck with love
Love is tough love it teaches you to grow
I ain't trying to make the same mistakes again
Can't be mines again know
I failed at loving you
Feel like you was destined for a reason
You don't even know love from the start
Can't be mines again know

I failed loving you

I'm only young feeling great

Age like fine wine
