

Alec Normal - To Be Named

I remember when i used to work around
But nowadays i turn all of my thoughts to sound
I remember when i didn't remember you
But now i think that hurts too much for me to do

Never even loved you
Didn't to begin with
Now i write about you
Loving all this bullshit
We were broken people
Picking up the pieces
Now i'm just a sad song
Waiting to be named after you

(our love is crucified)
(i never loved you to begin with)
(and i miss you)
Waiting to be named after you
(i wish that you would lie to me)
(i'm absolutely in love with you)
Now i'm just a sad song
Waiting to be named after you

I'd be surprised if you still had a butterfly or three
I gave mine to someone else but they gave them back to me
I know you missed me back then
But do you miss me now?
Cause i miss you the same amount
Since the day that you left town
Never even loved you
Didn't to begin with

Now i write about you
Loving all this bullshit
We were broken people
Picking up the pieces
Now i'm just a sad song
Waiting to be named after you

I lied i fucking loved you
(i love you!)
I have since you left me
My head is filled with thoughts but
(i love you!)
My heart's running on empty
We were broken people
(i love you!)
Picking up the pieces
Now i'm just a sad song
(i love you!)
Waiting to be named after you

(our love is crucified)
(i never loved you to begin with)
(and i miss you)
Waiting to be named after you
(i wish that you would lie to me)
(i'm absolutely in love with you)
Now i'm just a sad song
Waiting to be named after you
(our love is crucified)
(i never loved you to begin with)
(and i miss you)
Waiting to be named after you
(i wish that you would lie to me)

(i'm absolutely in love with you)

Now i'm just a sad song

Waiting to be named after you
