

Alec Normal - Dance Alone

Hi

You're welcome

We shouldn't have fun

We should dance alone

I cried over you

Until you came home

The clock struck 12

To be the next day

But by the time that a minute had passed it was yesterday

We should look at our love

After we hang up the phone

(Why can't I do it?)

I cried over you

Until you came home

It's magic

It's mainstream

It's in-between

My only wish is that you were there

When I became me

WÐµ shouldn't have fun

Midnight in your home

When all is said and donÐµ

It was nice

Crossing our two roads

I'll see you in the sun

I'll see you down the road

But we shouldn't have fun
We should dance alone

So I'll see you upstairs
Or I'll see you next time
Cause when we break up
You'll stop being mine

The clock struck 12
To be the next day
But by the time that a minute had passed it was yesterday

We shouldn't have fun
Midnight in your home
When all is said and done
It was nice
Crossing our two roads

I'll see you in the sun
I'll see you down the road
But we shouldn't have fun
We should dance alone
