

Gothic Psychology - King of the World

(verse 1)

Can you hear the crowd? chanting for the king
Guess who? it's me king of the in between Rainfall, numbers imagine and you'll see
Come be the king for all eternity

(chorus)

As i fade out people call out to me
Reminds me of who i used to be
Nothing makes me feel less empty
Then you when we were slightly stable

(verse 2)

Gotta think happy thoughts
Or you will end up lost
Don't want to know
What i will become then
I was taken from my home
I was stolen from my life

(chorus)

As i fade out people call out to me
Reminds me of who i used to be
Nothing makes me feel less empty
Then you when we were slightly stable

(bridge)

Reaching near our final end
Edge the way path we'll find
Corpses of who we left behind
Oh we know if only we had hid
As i fade, go away from this shell

As i live nothing seals, nothing seams
As i breathe, nothing fades, nothing slips
Tighter now, oh noose oh
As we fail, as we fall, farther now
As we fail, as we fall

(chorus)

As i fade out people call out to me
Reminds me of who i used to be
Nothing makes me feel less empty
Then you when we were slightly stable

As i fade out people call out to me
Reminds me of who i used to be
Nothing makes me feel less empty
Then you when we were slightly stable
