

Alec Normal - Flipping Coins

It was near magical
The brand new way I was able to Pick and choose my own fate
And now you're mine

I will not play around
I can't shake 8-balls to know if I
Should run away with you
But I sure hope

But flipping coins for love doesn't work that well at all (at all)
Rock, paper, scissors won't fix it all (at all)
Magic or love we don't know
Tragic enough for a show that we would watch
Dragging along all night long
Two of our rights make a wrong

A realm of love
(of lo-o-ove!)
Poison the sky
Poison the sky
A realm of love
(of lo-o-o-ve!)
Poison the sky
Poison the sky
Poison the sky-y-y-y
A makeshift wish or two
A dandelion can't save my life
But if you hold my hand
Our eyes in vain

But if you love me that much
That you would pray on a fantasy
Or a sea of Diet Coke
It doesn't matter to me

Sing!

Poison the sky
Poison the sky
Poison the sky
Poison the sky
Poison the sky
Poison the sky
Poison the sky
Poison the sky

Rock, paper, scissors won't fix it all (at all)
