

Alec Normal - Was it Something I Said

When you say it's not enough
When you reject me like stuff
That you throw out, I can't
Help it when you give me that smile

When you stomp on me and say "Egad!"
When you tell me that you give me a pout
It doesn't seem to matter when you give me that smile

I give you a third, and I give you a half
(No way!)
That's everything in my basket!
(Stowaway!)
You're kidding me now, then I can try to calm down
(Go away!)
Or we'll end up in a casket
(Propane!)

I give you a third, and I give you a half
That's everything in my basket!
You're kidding me now, then I can try to calm down
Or we'll end up in a basket

If my telepathy doesn't send
When I'm in lust with my dear friend
Who's just like you I can't Help it when they give me that smile
Oh, It means nothing until tonight
And I'm sorry if I started a fight
It doesn't seem to matter when they give me that smile

Go to the shelf, hey, but that could depitch you

(Ra ra ra)

Well that's what I told him but he didn't believe me

(Ahahaha!)

Get in the back, and get in the kicker

(Ra ra ra)

That's what I said

But he just doesn't get it!

But he just doesn't get it!

But he just doesn't get it!

When you say it's not enough

When you reject me like stuff

That you throw out, I can't

Help it when you give me that smile

When you stomp on me and say "Egad!"

When you tell me that you give me a pout

It doesn't seem to matter when you give me that smile
