

Sewerperson - crystal palace interlude

{intro}

(jabarionthebeat)

(vitals on the track)

{chorus}

Big blunt, face off, take off, okay

Red shoes, red shirt, red head, ole

Smoked out, blacked out, girl, what did you say

That shit went right over my head like a toupee

I don't want no problems, no way

Get up, get out, do you think i'm stupid

Plenty of people play me like house, no fluid

Oh ya, i got time, we gon' get into it

{verse}

Do you know what it's like all alone

Sometimes i just wish that i could hear you on the phone, ya

I've been trapped in my zone

17 nights i ain't leave my home

24 nights since i not been stoned

38 nights since i not been drunk

My swisher 5g, i call it a slam dunk

Cold in my heart, who'd of thunk

She the ice queen in a crystal palace

I need visine, i got red tint eyelids

Oh, i think you like this, i do not need stylists

Text message fights, baby girl, you so childish

Where do you reside

East of toronto, i cannot hide

You should come slide

I got blunts, i got bottles, it's a goodnight

{chorus}

Big blunt, face off, take off, okay

Red shoes, red shirt, red head, ole

Smoked out, blacked out, girl, what did you say

That shit went right over my head like a toupee

I don't want no problems, no way

Get up, get out, do you think i'm stupid

Plenty of people play me like house, no fluid

Oh ya, i got time, we gon' get into it
