

Roadrunner United - Set It Off

{Spoken Word Intro}

Alright, you should know this one

New York hardcore song

It's called "Set It Off" by Madball

You ready?

Have some fun, get this whole floor goin'

Let's do this

Dino looks a little bit like Hoya as it is, doesn't he?

Are you ready?

{Intro}

Set it off!

Let's go, New York

{Verse 1}

I see through bitter eyes

And the fact still remains

I read between your lies

You got beat at your own game

Take a trip with me

For soon, I will sin

Without one regret

The pain will begin

Let's go

As the knife got deeper

Won't go without a fight

And you know the price you pay

That price is with your life

Suffering and pain

LikĐµ nothing in your past

I walk the walk

And my path will be your last

{Spoken Word}
