

Roadrunner United - River Runs Red

{Verse 1}

I got the razor at my wrist 'cause I can't resist
This fever burnin' fist that does as I wish
But when I get downtown and see what's around
I just know there'd be a better place to be found

{Refrain}

I said, God you all

{Chorus}

The river runs red and I think I'm dyin'

Tear this shit house down, New York

{Verse 2}

Well I knew there'd come a day
When my mind would say "Hey, are you afraid?"
All I know is that I been down here tryin'
Well, I'll bleed on through the night
I suppose I'll be dead by the mornin' light
Don't be surprised if you mind when you find me

{Chorus}

The river runs red and I think I'm dyin'
The river runs red and I think I'm dead

{Guitar Solo}

{Refrain}

God help each and every one of you motherfuckers

{Guitar Solo}

{Chorus}

The river runs red and I think I'm dyin'

The river runs red and I think I'm dead

Yeah

{Outro}

Right
