

Lone Assembly - Blue Morning

{Verse}

I'm lost inside my own apartment now
It's cold outside with all the drizzling rain floating above the lights, ah
I walked around the table a million times
I shaped my diamonds on the ground, I just can't stop
The weird bits of me breaking the lock

{Chorus}

But I don't mind if I'm alone tonight
I'll hide from curious eyes, unnecessary social acts
No end to nights, staring at ceilings coming down
No need to fight, the awkward buzzing sound of fright

{Verse}

You're dust inside the drawers of a past
I missed by seeking you last
Now I hear everything in your sighs, ah
I walked around the table a billion times
And shaped my diamonds on the ground, I just can't stop
The weird bits of mĐµ taking the top

{Chorus}

But I don't mind if I'm alone tonight
I'll hide from curious Đµyes, unnecessary social acts
No end to nights, staring at ceilings coming down
No need to fight, the awkward buzzing sound of fright

{Outro}

I won't miss the sight of the blue morning
The sinking feeling of a dawn morning
And I won't miss the sight of the blue morning
The sinking feeling of a dawn morning

And I won't miss the sight of the blue morning

The sinking feeling of a dawn morning
