

76th Street - The Lipstick Lounge

{Verse 1}

There's a sanctuary

And it looks like a bar

A purple building that has stole the local sapphic's hearts

Someone's singing MUNA karaoke on the microphone

That first time I walked in I knew that I was not alone

There's my friends that I see

That's my chosen family

So much more to this than just our shared sexuality

Couple kissing in the doorway, people dancing in the hall

"This place is a blessing" written in sharpie on the wall

Five dollars at the door in exchange for

{Chorus}

I found my best friends at The Lipstick Lounge

I found a lover at The Lipstick Lounge

I'm just another boss queen babe girl who can say

I found myself at The Lipstick Lounge

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

{Verse 2}

I found a sanctuary

So just get in my car

I'll pick you up on 76th Street

I'm not taking you too far

No, it's not a brand new boyfriend

No, I still don't own a house

Mom I'm showing you a place I kissed a woman on the mouth

Kissed a woman on the mouth

{Chorus}

I found my best friends at The Lipstick Lounge

I found a lover at The Lipstick Lounge
I'm just another boss queen babe girl who can say
I found myself at The Lipstick Lounge
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

{Bridge}

It's the random conversations in the genderless bathroom lines
Simple conversations that have simply changed my life
Random conversations in the genderless bathroom lines
Where strangers say I love you and it gets you every time

{Chorus}

I found my best friends at The Lipstick Lounge
I found a lover at The Lipstick Lounge
I'm just another boss queen babe girl who can say
I found myself at The Lipstick Lounge
Best friends at The Lipstick Lounge
I found a lover at the lipstick lounge
I'm just another boss queen babe girl who can say
I found myself at The Lipstick Lounge
At The Lipstick Lounge
At The Lipstick Lounge
At The Lipstick Lounge
I found myself at The Lipstick Lounge
