

Dayglow - All At Once

{verse 1}

Fold it backwards, on my own words
Could it be worse? i can't imagine
All at once, i
On my own time
Lost my own mind
Down on a canvas

{pre-chorus}

I'm tryna keep it real
But who am i anymore? (gah!)
I'm breaking bones to feel
Oh, i lost what i was when i went to war

{chorus}

It comes all at once
It's just what i was
Forget what i want
A broken communion

{verse 2}

Overwhelmed by, what i can't find
In my own life, deep in the trenches
Now it feels like triple {lifetime?}
Another late night, i sit and listen
See dayglow live get tickets as low as $25 {pre-chorus}
I wanna find out why
I take it so serious (gah!)
Taking a step at a time
Oh, i lost what i was when i lost my mind

{chorus}

It comes all at once

It's just what i was

Forget what i want

A broken communion

(gah!)
