

Alan Gorrie - In the Jungle

Here in the jungle, you have to be smart
You can't let just anyone tempting you capture your heart
Not if you're smart
Sometimes at night, we dance to the drums
And live out our passionate secrets until morning comes
We wait for the drums

In the jungle
In the jungle
In the jungle
Are you the hunter or the hunted?

Out in the open, you're prey to their needs
So just hope that you're not the catch when the animal feeds
That's not what you need
Here in the jungle, you live by your eyes
You cannot afford to let someone take you by surprise
Not if you're wise

In the jungle
In the jungle
In the jungle
Are you the hunter or the hunted?

You can live by the knife or just run for your life in the jungle
All you hear in the dark
Is the beat of her heart in the jungle
In the heat of the night, she is strong in your sight
You can love, you can fight in the jungle
In the jungle
In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle

In the jungle
