

Benevolent Sin - Dead Love

{Monologue}

Colby, you can't attack me and then go back on it

I understand that this hurts and it hurts a lot, but your emotions are not an excuse for your actions

I'm willing to be civil at group gatherings and such, and I hope you don't isolate yourself, but we are done

This is the last time you will accuse me of anything

I cared about you, but clearly that didn't matter to you

Stay safe

Goodbye

{Bridge}

We are done

Goodbye
