

Benevolent Sin - Colby :^(

{Verse 1}

Time's up

Lost to the machine that controls me

Taking sedatives until I fucking O.D

Missing what I lost the day I killed the old me

Breaking through my shell displayed the hell within this bone heap

If there is a god I know that none of you are holy

None of you are innocent

You're walking on the lowly

You fuckers beat me

Now come face me for your trophy

You're all just witnessing the massacre of Colby

{Verse 2}

I hope you're mad

I hope this shit makes you uncomfortable

Most y'all living lives of luxury

Think you untouchable

But look at me

You made me something so unlovable

You won't let me in because I'm colorful

Motherfucker pack your bags

You lost your landlord cause you don't associate with f

I hope this brings a class of riches down to fucking rags

Yeah I hope you're mad

I hope I'll see my name go down in shame before I turn to burn my flag

{Refrain}

You're all just witnessing the massacre of Colby

None of you are holy

Holy

You're all just witnessing the massacre of Colby

Colby
