

Diaphane - I Fell For Her, She Fell For Him, And He Fell For Me

{Verse 1}

Me and Homer Simpson left Oklahoma
Headin' for the town they call L.A
We fell in with the wrong crowd
Met a girl name Pearl McCloud
The devil must have smiled on us that day

{Verse 2}

Homer, Pearl, and me, we started runnin' â€˜round together
Pearl fell for Homer, the whole thing, it got quite weird
Homer started actin' strange
He said the things that should be rearranged
And then he told me that he rÐµally loved my beard

{Chorus}

Strange as it seems
It ain't that bad a scÐµne
Though the folks in my hometown might disagree
Cause I fell for her
She fell for him
Oh, and he
He went and fell for me

{Verse 3}

Well things ain't like they was back in Oklahoma
Homer got a job working as a male masseuse
And I'm just sittin' here talkin'
At that girl who's out street walkin'
And Homer's gone and changed his name to Bruce

{Verse 4}

{?} got me in my head with my pair of big boots, ooh!

And she passed me a drift in a sea of misery
Homer's mother came and took him away
Pearl died of heart break on that day
And all I've got left are these beautiful memories

{Chorus}

Strange as it seems
It weren't that bad a scene
Though the folks in my hometown might disagree
Cause I fell for her
She fell for him
Oh, and he
He went and fell for me

{Outro}

I fell for her
She fell for him
Oh, and he
He went and fell for me
