

Whitney Bjerken - I'll Drown

{Verse 1}

Heart in the water

Soul in the sand

God there's no wonder

We're meant to be on land

And I've been to the deep

Seen the dark in your eyes

And I've swam these waters

But it still took me by surprise

{Chorus}

Drown, I'll drown

The world fades with every blink

With each new depth that I sink

Drown, I'll drown

Your love is weighing me down

If you hold me here much longer I'll drown

{Verse 2}

Now it's getting cold

Cause there's ice underneath

And it's getting real old

Cause I just wanna breathe

As the waves get taller

Over my head

My heart gets smaller

Cause I wish it were you instead

{Chorus}

Drown, I'll drown

The world fades with every blink

With each new depth that I sink

Drown, I'll drown
Your love is weighing me down
If you hold me here much longer I'll

{Bridge}

And I traded all of my air for you
Cause I thought that you were the one
And now I'm turning black and blue
As the water fills up my lungs

{Outro}

Drown, I'll drown
The world fades with every blink
With each new depth that I sink
Drown, I'll drown
Your love is weighing me down
If you hold me here much longer
I'll.. I'll drown
