

Oscar Lindsey - North Carolina

{Verse 1}

In North Carolina, where the land meets the sea
The breezes blow there, like you've never seen
And I still miss you and I still cry
These tears, that leave my eyes

{Verse 2}

In South California
Where she left me
People talk there and people scheme
If I could wager
If I could scream
These tears would be seen

{Chorus}

Can we just forget about the history you can't live without
The misery of loving you, the big excuse for what I do
I just can't make it out
I'll make it out, I'll make it out

{Verse 3}

And now I wonder
Where she's been
Way down under
With her friends
If I could find her
And grab her arm
They're just tears
They mean no harm

{Chorus}

Can we forget about the history you can't live without

The misery of loving, the big excuse for what I do
I just can't make it out

{Outro}

I'll make it out

I'll make it out

I'll make it out

I'll make it out
