

Colourblind - Longsleeves

{Intro}

Oh oh oh, oh-oh

{Verse 1}

I'm wearing long sleeves now

Call them films, without a cringing smile

Look at me, trying to look another way

Draw on my body

Like that would change your mind

{Chorus}

I've always wanted

To be someone else, but

I've become a worse version of myself

And all these memories

I thought I'd burnt out of me

They fix their eyes and pry from help

{Post-Chorus}

You make me want to want to be something I fucking hate

{Verse 2}

I'm wearing jewellery, proud

Outside voice, and am I cool enough?

Look at me looking exactly the same

Am I somebody now?

And does it change your mind?

{Chorus}

I've always wanted

To be someone else

But I've become a worse version of myself

And all these memories
I thought I'd burnt out on me
They fix their eyes and pry from help

{Post-Chorus}

You make me want to want to be something I fucking hate
Quit learning how to love myself, always I imitate
So dance along this hole in me, there's no one I'd rather be Romanticise wanting to die is just no way to be

{Outro}

Oh-oh, oh, oh-oh oh
Oh-oh, oh, oh-oh oh, oh
