Adam Ford - Real Trust

{intro}

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust

{chorus}

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust

{verse 1}

These people faker than phantom freddy, won't keep it steady

Been through it all and some more, so i've been feeling ready

I put a lock on the door, in case they try to get me

The noise i'm making's enormous, like a dropped yeti

But what's a lock to a security breach?

On the clock, want a raise, so i'm working with speed

Still shocked by the ways that they've been hurtful to me

Getting rocked by a wave when you're surfing the seas

{chorus}

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust

{verse 2}

Stressing over things that shouldn't matter to me

When it's a blessing that this life has even happened to me

Should be progressing as a person, up the ladder for me

But i'm repressing these emotions, getting sadder with ease

I know how it feels getting 0 likes on dating apps

I know how it feels when happy moments having major gaps

I know how it feels when there's nowhere you can be alone

Nobody to tell, typing sad thoughts into your phone

{chorus}

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust

{verse 3}

I've been tryna build bonds on my study abroad

But i know many people looking at me as odd

And i'm always tryna change but it's fine that i'm flawed

Cause i'd be rather be myself then appear as a fraud

I got love for everyone who has appeared on a song

And just as much for those who like to listen along

I was miffed when i heard the diss track from sean

But now he's truly missed, i wish he wasn't gone

{outro}

Can't be wrong if it's right for me

Can't get strong if i'm not first free

All i really need is self love

All i really need is real trust
