

Colourblind - Lately

{Verse 1}

Lately, I've been feeling so empty
So baby , please help me get through this
I need you to hold me in your arms
Lately, I've been waking so early
I'm trying, to fight the world off with my hands
But my heart's not so strong

{Chorus}

Lately I've liked being
Left on my own

{Verse 2}

Lately, I've been getting so angry
I'm tired, of trying so hard to do right
When either way I'm wrong
Lately, I've been dreaming so much
So shake me , wake me up from this nightmare
The tightness in my chest

{Chorus}

Lately I've liked being
Left on my own
Sometimes I need space
Not checking my phone
Stopped idolising my friends
Just 'cause they're old
Really can't trust anyone
With the weight of my soul

{Outro}

Well you lost me

Well you lost me

Well you lost me

I've finally lost my voice

Well you lost me

Well you lost me

Well you lost me

Well you lost me

I've finally lost my voice
