

Mac Miller - Step Sister

{intro}

The unfortunate tale of charlotte the harlot

{verse 1}

Yeah, yeah

Said there's a rain cloud, outside the window where the main house

Our family sit silent at the table, eating take out

Me and my step-sister just made out, the other night while everyone was hanging at the lake house

I realized that i loved her last summer, she appeared in my dreams naked, made me start to wonder if it was wrong

So we never got along, used to ignore each other

Argue and argue until our parents had to come in, they run in

Yelling and pulling belts out

My temporary tattoos, covered by a welt

How i wish that she would see i'm the one for her

And her polka dot dress, reading tom sawyer

Yeah, they kept us in the house after school

No friends allowed, over staying hidden in our rooms

â€˜cause inside was safe, and outside a dangerous place

She smiled at me, she was making we wait

In my thoughts, i undressed her, protect her

She come apart in front of me, i'd put her back together

{chorus}

Yeah, i get kinda crazy when i miss her

Can't tell nobody, but i'm in love with my step sister

Think i'm in love with my step sister, shit

Charlotte the harlot

{verse 2}

Yeah, now we sneaking into the guest house

Tell our mom and dad that we went out
It's storming outside, we'll be gone til' it's morning outside
We'll never feel normal again
And i never been kissed before, i hope that she can teach me
Devoured by the power whenever she lay beneath me
She make it look so easy
She can turn my frown to a smile
Turn me to a man from a child â€˜cause i'm so lonely, and she's so lovely
I'm obsessed, so can she touch me
Is it crazy, if i call her baby
Will everybody hate me if they find out?
Yeah, see i fell for the sheltered angel, i can't tell her Charlottes' web a little bit tangled, can i help her

{chorus}

It's crazy when i miss her
Don't tell nobody, but i'm in love with my step sister
Think i fell for my sister
Charlotte the harlot

{outro}

Said, it'll be our little secret, it'll be our little secret, babe
It'll be our little secret, can it be our little secret, babe?
Said, it'll be our little secret, it'll be our little secret, babe
It'll be our little secret, our little secret
