Noah Britton - "Here Lies Rockin' Bob"

People don't you know

I'm gonna kill myself tomorrow?

People don't you know

I'm gonna kill myself tomorrow?

So I'll have to keep singing

So tomorrow never comes

If I play this song every night

I'll never see the deadline

Yeah, I'll keep movin' the deadline

People don't ya know

You can see me play tomorrow?

Even if I don't

Have a booked show

Somewhere I'll be singin'

I have to sing every day

Even if no one's listenin'

I know it's the only way

Yeah, music makes me have to stay

People don't you know

If you sing this tomorrow

I'll live forever

If you keep playing my songs? I know

They're all I can give you

For after I'm gone

I don't want children so that's all that's left of me when I pass on

Yeah my songs are all that's left when I pass on

People don't you know

When you sing you're never old?
