Wind of beginnings, deliver this message Because I will always believe in you"

That time I was standing in a world I saw in my dream
Surveying the landscape, my legs tremble slightly
But I won't look back, because I've decided to walk forward
Looking up at the seven-colored rainbow in the sky, do you see it too?

Wind of beginnings, deliver this message
Because I will watch your back as you run towards your dream
Soaring wind, deliver this thought
Because I will always believe in you"
Fluttering towards the future

For example, when a person thinks about the one important to them Surely they have a kind look on their face The road through time is endless, move forward and don't give up

Wind of beginnings, deliver this message
At the end of your faraway journey, I will wait for you
Soaring wind, exceed your destiny
Because I believe my wish will be delivered
If I meet you again someday, show me your smile

Wind of beginnings, deliver this message
At the end of your faraway journey, I will wait for you
Soaring wind, exceed your destiny
Because I believe my wish will be delivered
There is nothing to be afraid of, "because you exist"
