

Sacri - Peter REMAKE

I know there's a heart somewhere
I know you're still deep down there
Griffin, is your treatment fair?
Or do you ever even care?

Your treatment of others
Reveals your true colors
How is your life
Do you love your little life?

What about Stewie?
What about Brian?
Do you just hate them?
Is that why you're crying?

I know there's a heart somewhere
I know you're still deep down there
Griffin, is your treatment fair?
Or do you ever even care?

Your treatment of others
Reveals your true colors
How is your life
Do you love your little life?

Your wife Louis
She loves you so
But can you even give
Her some affection?
What about Meg?
What was it that you said?

You wanted her to shut up
About the lies that you fed

I know there's a heart somewhere
I know you're still deep down there
Griffin, is your treatment fair?
Or did you ever even care?

Your treatment of others
Reveals your true colors
How is your life
Do you love your little life?

(I know there's a heart somewhere)
(I know you're still deep down there)
(Griffin, is your treatment fair,)
(Or do you ever even care?)

(-even care?)

I know there's a heart somewhere
I know you're still deep down there
Griffin, is your treatment fair?
Or did you ever even care?
Your treatment of others
Reveals your true colors
How is your life
Do you love your little life?

Peter, come on, wake up
Smell the roses, it'll be enough
