

BitFinity - Megalixir

{Verse 1}

I'm a green-haired, half-Esper Magitek girl
Who gathered with friends after the end of the world
Through auctions and operas I can't deny
We've tussled with dragons and octopi
Now my team is tired and they've walked all night
Through this dungeon that leads to the ultimate fight
As we're finally approaching the end of this quest
I come across a little chest

{Chorus}

And inside it is a Megalixer
A potion in its prime
Should I toss it in a keg or mixer?
Or seal it for all time?
It fully heals everyone in my crew
So until I need it, Megalixer, I'm hangin' on to you!

{Verse 2}

I'll use Tonics, I'll use Potions, I'll use Phoenix Down
I'll throw Super Balls and Smoke Bombs all over town
I'll drink down Ethers, keep my MP high
And bake Green Cherries in a tasty pie
I rub Remedies on my aching joints
And set up a Tent at every save point
I'll use Echo Screens and Eyedrops and Magicite Shards
And I even used the Rename Card!

{Chorus}

But I'll never use my Megalixer
I might need it down the line
As we all know it's a Mega-fixer

And right now, I'm still mostly fine
They could take my life, my heart, and my soul
But they'll never take my Megalixer
No! It's what makes me whole!

I should save it for a real emergency
So until then little Megalixer, what can I say?
Lively Megalixer, don't go away
Lovely Megalixer
You're gonna stay with me!
