

ONB - Revelations

{Chorus}

I pull up with some sixes
Me and the bro talking money
Clothes hoes and bitches
But what's it's really

I mean what's the difference
Why am I even tripping
My bro had only one thing to say
And that is go and get it

Everything is gonna be ok
Just stay up in your lane
Let â€~em hate and do your thing

Everything is gonna be ok
Just stay up in your lane and
Let â€~em hate and do your thing

{VERSE}

Another day in the life of a rugged native
Trying some meditation
I know it's been so hard lately
I look for restoration
My soul need some revelation
I need somÐµ education
On how to survive and just stay alive
So I takÐµ this drive and pull up to my broskies

Pop a couple coldies a couple okies
Bumping oldies thinking bout them OGs

The ones that was way before us
Now we hearing all their stories

Now I wanna make a change and make a way
Got no time for none of the hate so I break away
And take my place Amongst the greats Watch me elevate
We gotta do what takes and make no mistakes

{Chorus}

I pull up with some sixes
Me and the bro talking money
Clothes hoes and bitches
But what's it's really

I mean what's the difference
Why am I even tripping
My bro had only one thing to say
And that is go and get it
Everything is gonna be ok
Just stay up in your lane
Let â€œem hate and do your thing

Everything is gonna be ok
Just stay up in your lane and
Let â€œem hate and do your thing

{VERSE}

On a dirt road
Feeling like a lost soul
Take a cruise with my bro
We let all that shit go

Fuck the money and the hoes

I know I have a lot to learn while the reefer burn
Yeah we sit and reminisce
All the shit we did

What a joy when we was kids
What a life we really lived
Now we really in this bitch
Watch a native come up

Off the energy that I am giving
I know that this is life and it's the way I live it
Now I gotta go and take my time
Even though there's not much in this life
I got to make it right
It's time to take flight
Watch me learn a better way
Yeah we all need some better days, aye

{Chorus}

I pull up with some sixes
Me and the bro talking money
Clothes hoes and bitches
But what's it's really

I mean what's the difference
Why am I even tripping
My bro had only one thing to say
And that is go and get it

Everything is gonna be ok
Just stay up in your lane
Let 'em hate and do your thing

Everything is gonna be ok
Just stay up in your lane and
Let 'em hate and do your thing
