

Sawyer Utah - TEXAS

You said
I'll be here
But you're not
I'll be here
But you're not
Yeah, I know things
You don't want
I know things
You don't want
Me to know
You said

Said you're sicka Texas
Put me on the guest list
Over to the checklist
Crossed me off

I know, I got the message
For you where your head is
Maybe you were restless, ah

You're prolly rollin' up to Texaco
Talking to your friends but they'll never know
It was 55 degrees
In the middle of the city
Said I had to leave
You said
I'll be here
But you're not
I'll be here
But you're not

Yeah, I know things

You don't want

I know things

You don't want

Me to know

You said

I'll be here

But you're not

I'll be here

But you're not

Yeah, I know things

You don't want

I know things

You don't want

Me to know, you said

I'll be here

But you're

I'll be here

But you're not, not

I'll be here

But you're

I'll be here

But you're not

Can't you tell me how you feel?

Back in LA

No text by the morning

Maybe none of it was real?

I be fillin' up a tank

But the gas ain't pourin'

Strong enough
Not long enough
It's fadin' out like you
You, yeah

You said
I'll be here but you're not
I'll be here
But you're not
Yeah, I know things
You don't want
I know things
You don't want me to know
You said
I'll be here
But you're not
I'll be here
But you're not
Yeah, I know things
You don't want
I know things
You don't want me to know
You said

Can't you tell me how you feel?
Back in LA

Maybe none of it was real?
I be fillin' up a tank
But the gas ain't pourin'

Strong enough

Not long enough

Fading out like you

You, yeah

(Houston, we got a problem)
