

Jaden - Down Remix

{verse 1: jaden smith}

Aye girl how you livin tonight?

Can i get forgiven tonight?

Cause the way that it's lookin like i'm sinning tonight

Cause i'm lookin and i see a lot of women tonight

They'll probably try and blow me off

So they'll stunt about my swag so they know i'm bossing

You know a joker gotta ball

They say how'd you get it back, cause i never lost it

You know a joker stay afloat

They like my music they don't every really play it though

Is it just cause i'm a minor?

And i'm ticking like a timer, and all my ladies finer than your women?

All my clothes designer and i'm hotter than an iron

And the irony's i'm tired and i'm winnin

And i'm grinning

Maybach, yeah i'm in it

Girl why you trippin? take a minute

Oh, geez

Girl i'm kidding

Take you to my spot, i can show you how i'm livin

Get up in my car but only if you're with it

We'd be kissin' in the back cuz my windows stay tinted

I just did it to 'em

No girl, i'm not timid

You can hit the mall my car, don't got a limit

Even if it you did, lil joker didn't hit it

Cuz you keep on going higher ever since i started spitting

Girl you sad, i get it

Girl you mad, what is it?

Something bad? i'll fix it

But all you want is swag
Well, i'm glad that you admit it
Cause these jokers tripping
{hook: jaden smith & t. coles}
Bruh this is my town
Teo in the spot when the joker ain't around
Pat me on the head, just be careful of the crown
And my dad said that you still lost 'til you found
And you keep them going down

Sometimes life is hard, don't let love get you down(down, down)
Don't do it girl, don't do it
You're so beautiful but baby, who knew it?

Sometimes life is hard, don't let love get you down (down, down)
I admit it, i get pissed when you trippin
We either break-up or make up so forget it

{verse 2: jaden smith}
Girl you walked up in the night club
Well, you walked up in the right club
And some dudes tryna get something
Well, it's bout to be a fight club
Cause i been lookin for a hottie with a body
Girl you got me thinking
Girl i got you drinking
Lemonade stay pink, and we can sneak in
My room for the weekend
Tell that chef that you a vegan
Baby you ain't never leaving
Kiss you want a cheek when you sleepin
Beacon of light
Baby girl, good night

I know that you on my sight
But that's only for the night
Why it always gotta feel wrong when it's right?
It's about to go down and you know it
Girl i really like it so just slow it down
Girl while i'm off bein' a poet,(down)
You 'gon be at home trying to hold it down
When you get mad girl i know it(down)
That's when you take your phone and you throw it down
I'm looking at you now and you going(down)
And i looks up in my eyes and you know it(down)
And i hold it but it's bout to go down
{bridge: jaden smith}
It's about to go down
It's about to go down
It's about to go down
It's about to go down
It's about to go down
It's about to go down
It's about to go down
It's about to go down down down..
