

Rustage - Upgrade

{chorus: the kevin bennett & rustage}

In a world of corrupt ways

We keep on playing all these dumb games

I wish somebody will unplug me

Watchout for the gunplay, i just want an upgrade

Uh, yeah

Yeah, i just really want an upgrade

I'm sick of these dumb games

Yeah, i just really want an upgrade

Kept living for mom's sake

Yeah, i just really want an upgrade

I'll be happy someday when i get an upgrade

{verse 1: rustage}

Uh, get my coat, i gon' make it right

Death alone, can not save a life

Wreck the code - how i'm breaking ice

And i left 'em broke, thĐµy can't pay the price

And i'm in their hĐµads like a datamine

They be laid to rest, they gon' say goodnight

Through electric breath they destabilised

Make a brain dance, then they fade to white

Never the person they wanted

Through the routines like an animatronic

We turned our flesh into steel and bionics

But i won't forget how it feels to be honest

I feel it down to my metal spine

I do it big like a terabyte

I'm so ergonomic, get the plate tectonic

Going supersonic like a mega-drive

Rip it off, need a ripper doc

I be riding lines, but not written off

Like becca connecting this chrome into bodies
I'm lighting them up like a city block
When i'm hitting shots, i'm going supernova
Wired up, got a new persona
And my veins 'boutta lose composure
Bring the stars down, so the moon is closer
I condense the track - the way i'm running off of phantom power
Told my mother once that i would stand atop asaka tower
Never had a dream myself 'cause other people's had been louder
Flesh and metal in the rubble, death forgets to hand me flowers
{chorus: the kevin bennett & rustage}
In a world of corrupt ways
We keep on playing all these dumb games
I wish somebody will unplug me
Watchout for the gunplay, i just want an upgrade
Uh, yeah
Yeah, i just really want an upgrade
I'm sick of these dumb games
Yeah, i just really want an upgrade
Kept living for mom's sake
Yeah, i just really want an upgrade
I'll be happy someday when i get an upgrade

{verse 2: louverture}

The things that i've seen in this world is so grim
Take aim at the clique, so i'm always on ten
I done seen my main man get turn up from within
It ain't hard to get ate by the city of sin
If you hating, you lame, and your block - i'mma spin
Your chest meeting my fists if you come for my kin
Cybernetics giving me the thickest of skin
And my sandevistan leaving all your shots missing
Try my set? you out of luck

Team ain't your average bunch
Really, we some cyberpunks
We do not give a fuck
Yellow jacket keeps me snug
This chop be stinging bums
The weight on my back's a ton
The kid who yields to none
In night city on the run
Main mission - hit the club
Say you keep that kyubi clutched
Like boy, that shit's a dud
Becca blasts shells through your guts
That's how she gives it up
Lately been down on my luck
Still i yield to none
Yield to none
Without her i come undone
You're all i need, know the eyes of lucy rest on me
But i'd rather get burned to keep our peace, oh
{chorus: the kevin bennett & rustage}
In a world of corrupt ways
We keep on playing all these dumb games
I wish somebody will unplug me
Watchout for the gunplay, i just want an upgrade
Uh, yeah
Yeah, i just really want an upgrade
I'm sick of these dumb games
Yeah, i just really want an upgrade
Kept living for mom's sake
Yeah, i just really want an upgrade
I'll be happy someday when i get an upgrade
