

Prez Harris - RIGHT NOW / AZIZZ INTERLUDE

|Intro|

I don't know if I can do this anymore
I don't see you, I don't hear from you
I thought we were going to spend time together
I just, I can't do this anymore

|Verse 1: Prez Harris|

Uhh forever sore, feelings of nevermore
Stuck on that one stage, been tryna go on a tour
Winning but you stressing, you thought you'd be up by more
And you finally getting some money, but dreaming making you poor
Something I couldn't picture when T'ing up in the dorm
My brothers had to leave me, they T'ing up in New York
My other fighting demons he hit my line aftĐµr court
It'd hurt me too much to see him, I know he need the support
I'm hoping onĐµ day they free him, no one in life is perfect
My girl she think we won't make it, wondering is it worth it
If this the last night I see her, I pray the sun never rise
Cause she'll be gone when the sun shines

|Hook: Prez Harris|

Cause even when it's sunny we got rain right now
I just want the money and the fame right now
I ain't really dealing with my main right now
I'm in the bay right now, with ya bae right now
Been up 24, I'm 24 right now
Guess it's working out, I'm getting sore right now
Got a 'lil love, I need more right now
I need more right now
I need more right now
I need more right?

|Verse 2: Prez Harris|

A thousand wins, I learned more from a loss
Could work a thousand years and you'd never be boss
They never teach you what life really cost
Or what life really worth, when you black it seem off (dang)
I painted visions of life in a loft
With Basquiat precision but timing was off
The real division we stuck in a trough
But the government take a third 'less you know about ROTH
I'm learning the more you know, you know nothing at all
Stuck in a brawl between my shoulders and letting em fall
If you involved, then run and hide if you gone make it alive
Cause we'll be gone when the sun shines

|Hook: Prez Harris|

Cause even when it's sunny, we got rain right now
I just want the money and the fame right now
I ain't really dealing with my main right now
I'm in the bay right now, with ya bae right now
Been up 24, I'm 24 right now
Guess it's working out, I'm getting sore right now
Got a lil love, I need more right now
I need more right now
I need more right now
I need more right?

AZIZZ INTERLUDE

|Verse: Azizz|

I'm trying to make it easier for you
I'm trying to make it easier for you
I wish that we had closure (I wish that we had closure)

I wish that we were closer (I wish that we were closer)

I'm wondering why

Why you love to make me, love to make me cry

I guess I'm on my own tonight

I'm all alone tonight, I

Wish that we had closure

Wish that we were closer

Feel like you pulling away

I hear you saying my name (my name)

But we ain't on the phone tonight

I'm all alone tonight

I'm on my own tonight (own tonight)
