

Kanye West - Heaven and Hell

|Intro: Kanye West|

[?], child, surround me

No more-

Oh

No more-

Oh

|Verse 1: Kanye West|

No more promo, no more photos

No more logos, no more chokeholds

We on bezos, we get payrolls

Trips to Lagos, connect like LEGOs

We take high roads, make this my eyes closed

Burn false idols, Jesus, disciples

|Chorus: Kanye West|

I just drained your pain now, I done bled my vain out

New level the game down, simulation changed

No more problems, no more argue

No more asking "Who really are you?"

|Verse 2: Kanye West & Dem Jointz|

You know the real you, last time I saw you

Was insidĐµ my rear view, shall I continue?

Straight from BĐµirut, Chicago, Beirut

You cray, we cray too, you pray, we pray too

And that's who we pray to

This show, new me, this show, movie

'Cause no one can play you

New grill, new teeth, new chicks, new beef

Still get, loose leaf, still whip, two seats

New crib, new lease, new town, new treats

Break all the old chains you got a new piece

|Verse 3: Symba|

Left home alone, eighteen, full grown

All I know is what I don't know

Misled, misfed, judged but misread

Can't look back now, that ain't how you get there

Welfare, healthcare, dad gone, daycare

Mom worked two jobs, still grow a fair

Road block, potholes, flat tires, dead ends

I found my way with no way here

|Chorus: Kanye West|

I just drained your pain now, I done bled my vain out

New level the game down, simulation changed

No more problems, no more argue

No more asking "Who really are you?"

|Outro: Kanye West|

Who really are you?

Who-who-who-who-w-who really are you
