

Rustage - Fear My Touch

{intro: rustage}

Yeah, huh

{verse 1: rustage}

The world is rotten

Man does crimes as a better options

Made the laws, i'm just gon' find the problems

When the sun so conscious we define our contracts

Put the silver bullets in these monsters

Hate to see power like this has been squandered

I write the name, then their fate i have conjured

We ride the earth, and my image been looked down in fonder

In the dark thĐµy come with open arms

I know i lit the spark, now thĐµy be blown apart

With every inch of mark, i make 'em broken hearts

I'm gonna bring the flam, i play like noah's ark

I know i chose a path of the martyr

They say i go too far - i go farther

They hit the blow up mark, and my armour

You wanna know what it's like in the darkness

Load up the ink in my pen like a cartridge

I'll be the one to select like i'm darwin

Feel like an artist - way i'm correcting mistakes in the margin

Don't leave the justice if you're not a target

Morals are blackened 'till i turn 'em scarlets

I pave a way through the pain in the carnage

They need a god, and the god that been granted

{pre-chorus: mcgwire}

Spotlight drifting

Open that, i've drowned

And the dark eyes shifting
Pull me further down

{chorus: mcgwire}

For all lies, all lies in the world
Think i run, i run, i never fall
And i feel the rush
All should fear my touch

{verse 2: rustage}

Uh, fear my touch like they been haptophobic
Tears and blood, the world that see is hopeless
Years to come, they always see my modest
Crypt the cents, i'm just the one who wrote it
Justice the medicine, i am the doses
Call me your seraphim - apotheosis
They all been questioning - know that i own this
I bring the pain to these sinners like moses
Persons drop like ringer, ring and roses
Man and god - they live in symbiosis
Storm the rocks since it been eroded
Lay the {?}, let them all expose this
I'm just part the scene, but i will grow it
Man is sick - i'll be the diagnosis
Overthink - i need no time to process
Watch 'em as they greed to final moment
I am the god of this earth, i am the one that deserve, look at my bloody of work
If they gon' follow, they hurt, then the shepherd be willing to all of the words
Be forming the faith of that protestant church, lead me your voice, and you r promises heard
Let all the hatred be lost in the person, know i'll be the light in the fog of the murk
I'll be the light in the shadows

I'll be the light when they drown to the gallows
Hand cross the keys, we could talk like pianos
Lay out the face in the cars like a terror
I got a page, and the paper my ammo
Strike to the heart like an arrow
I leave them all up in smoke like tobacco
Justice is narrow 'cause they wanted god, but their hopes are too shallow
{pre-chorus: mcgwire}
Spotlight drifting
Open that, i've drowned
And the dark eyes shifting
Pull me further down

{chorus: mcgwire}
For all lies, all lies in the world
Think i run, i run, i never fall
And i feel the rush
All should fear my touch
