

Rustage - Never Giving In

{intro: goldenemp}

Never giving in {verse 1: rustage}

We all got monsters inside of us, see them all black when the eyes are shut

Feel like a whole, and i said this that no one will end it, unload it when times are rough

Lining up and never run away, ties are up 'cause of the suffocate

Finally guts, but i'm feeling hollow when i'm staring down at my own mother
's grave

Know i'm used to l's, but never lose myself, can win, but always choosing hell

Wanting black in my soul, then know whose to help, my own black is the gold
, then refuse to dwell

WhĐµn i'm back in my hole, don't know who to tell, all the damagĐµ i hold, an d the glimmer fell

They want bankai, i got bank, i hold an arm high, sending doom to hell

They say that you can't avoid him, victims are my own behavior

My thoughts flow my mind like poison, rejecting myself from a human nature

My powers are disappointment, i'm struggling to be the saviors

I'm losing track of all the times that i've been deemed to failure

{pre-chorus: goldenemp}

If i fall, i just get up again

I show they all appeal the feeling, i meet you in the end

{chorus: goldenemp}

Full aims never on my mind, just need that second win

I've been feeling hollow, and i'm never giving in

Never be alone, only face the darkness, 'cause i'll be by your side when we face the end

I've been feeling hollow, and i'm never, never giving in

{verse 2: rustage}

I know that rukia believed, why can't i do the same?
'cause when my friends are on their knees, i know i'm who to blame
And every day's a different dream when you hallucinates
I feel i'm tearing at the seams if i refuse to change
No matter my power gon' need more, keep score
I'm like the sun, and my pride is my heat source
I keep on talking to spite all the remorse
Reform - how can man slain with the sleeve short
I got a mask, but that's surely my dreamfall Masking myself with the pain or go beef on
We all have monsters, but you never see yours
Death out to dead, but i know i gon' respawn
I track for those who can not fight, wielding my blade in the spotlight
Could've be dead for the ones who departed, but i will wake up for the last time
Putting in place like it's quantice, you have a fear, but it's not mine
I turning demons inside to a beacon of light that they sees in the night wh en i drop by

{chorus: goldenemp}

Full aims never on my mind, just need that second win
I've been feeling hollow, and i'm never giving in Never be alone, only face the darkness, 'cause i'll be by your side when we
face the end
I've been feeling hollow, and i'm never, never giving in

{bridge: rustage}

I'm never giving in, no matter if the cost is great I've lost too many battles, they can fight with something blocks the ways Suppressing thoughts of guilty, keeping thoughts of hate or locked away
They say your life is setting stone, but i've been known to swap my fate

{pre-chorus: goldenemp}

If i fall, i just get up again

I show they all appeal the feeling, i meet you in the end

{chorus: goldenemp}

Full aims never on my mind, just need that second win

I've been feeling hollow, and i'm never giving in

Never be alone, only face the darkness, 'cause i'll be by your side when we
face the end

I've been feeling hollow, and i'm never, never giving in
