

Sewerperson - Atlantic Blanket

The Atlantic wind

Winter is here again

I settle back into hibernation

I hope it never ends

Oh This frozen coast

Pulled my love away

In the blue below

She still suffocates

We don't have to go's had turned to oh u should of came's

If its not the host the invites never hit the same

Round and round we go just dancing in the bullet rain

I lay up and blow this lavender from my window pane

Day break to night

I set my sight to horizon

When she's worlds away

Lord just hold her tight

I see rain ahead

But I dont know how much is coming

Planks I lay my hĐµad keep bobbing up on top the ocean

The Atlantic wind

WintĐµr is here again

I settle back into hibernation

I hope it never ends

Oh This frozen coast

Pulled my love away

In the blue below

She still suffocates

The Atlantic wind

Winter is here again

I settle back into hibernation

I hope it never ends

Oh This frozen coast

Pulled my love away

In the blue below

She still suffocates

We don't have to go's had turned to oh u should of came's

If its not the host the invites never hit the same

Round and round we go just dancing in the bullet rain

I lay up and blow this lavender from my window pane
