

Sewerperson - Solitude RE

I have changed
I guess i became an asshole
I drink 5ths right thru the morning
Then im out cold
So how the fuck im doing it better than u is ur fault
You've been beat by someone on the brink of burial
Ur a disappointment
And i wish momma had aborted u
Cause id reach deep inside her body until im choking you
Fuck the scene ur all some faggots twitter spoils you
Still i wish i could do more damage than these words will do
Take my livelihood
Away give me one person i can trust
Id trade it all inside my shell of flesh and blood
I hope dĐµath is empty space and nothing but
Pain and thoughts
Take thĐµ pain away
They talk plenty shit but i have time today
I just called the lift to scoop u from my place
Baby im grateful u had time to talk and stay
I am i am
My name takes 7 hours of his 9 to 5
And plenty more hours when it come to night
Way he all on my dick he just cheated on wifey
Im making the waves u been swimming u pike
The same mouth that flame the same ones that recite
My songs for me when they go for a drive
Ai aight
I guess that means im doing something right
I just met people that could've done wonders
I ruined my chances because im a drunkard

I'll blow in this bitch baby in the bunker

These women i fuck know i dont even want em like that

27 is not out the plan

27

I won't go to heaven

I am 75 percent sure ill be warm in hell

This shit bout feeling my feelings and i do not take it well

I need to take me some drugs just to be myself uh uh

Welcome to dna i hope u kill yourself uh uh
